

KWIKSET KEVO PLUS FACT SHEET

Posted 1.4.16

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

Kevo Plus™ adds remote access capabilities and enhanced features to Kwikset® Kevo™, Kevo 2nd Gen and Kevo Convert. Kevo Plus establishes direct, online connectivity to Kevo, allowing users to lock and unlock Kevo from their smartphones from anywhere in the world. Kevo and Kevo 2nd Gen users will still be able to use the patent-pending Touch-to-Open Technology developed by UniKey Technologies, which enables users to lock or unlock the door by touching the smart lock if an authorized smart phone is within range.

HOW IT WORKS

Upon upgrading their Kevo account to Kevo Plus, users will receive a free Bluetooth-enabled gateway that allows for remote locking and unlocking functionality. The gateway plugs into an Internet router with an Ethernet connection, forming a secure wireless interaction between Kevo, Kevo 2nd Gen, Kevo Convert, and the Kevo Plus gateway. When a user activates remote access in the Kevo app, the Kevo Plus gateway communicates seamlessly with the Kevo smart lock via Bluetooth Low Energy to initiate the lock or unlock command. One Kevo Plus gateway can connect to multiple Kevo locks.

UPGRADE FEATURES
